

It's about family

Navigating life can get tricky. 4 Whether you are helping your kids understand the difference between good friends and bad ones, trying to manage your finances in a tough economy, or trying to get a better handle on some of life's biggest questions, sometimes it would be nice to get a little help. Kendall Hailey said, "The great gift of family life is to be intimately acquainted with people you might never even introduce yourself to, had life not done it for you." As a church family, we believe one of the great blessings of God is closely linking us with others for common purpose. At Banner this purpose is summed up in a simple statement: to know Jesus Christ and together help others know Him in a life-changing way. We are deeply committed to knowing, really knowing, Christ more intimately and we believe the best way to do so is in community. The rest of our church family brings insight, resources and skills to the table that helps each of us grow beyond our own capacity as we love Christ and become His family. So how exactly does that work? Jump around the site and we'll show you how we think we can make it happen together.
